

Timothy Kincaid Recognized on Crain's Chicago 2020 List of Notable Minorities in Accounting, Consulting & Law

DECEMBER 16, 2020

Winston & Strawn Corporate Partner Timothy Kincaid is recognized on Crain's Chicago Business' list of Notable Minorities in Accounting, Consulting & Law. This list features 56 professionals, many of whom overcame obstacles and bias due to their minority status to rise to the top of their fields.

Timothy focuses on private-equity transactions and mergers and acquisitions. He has represented corporations, private-equity funds and investment banks in negotiating acquisition, sale, capital raising, and equity purchase deals. Since last year, he has handled transactions totaling more than $2 billion. As a member of Winston's executive committee, Timothy has worked with firm leadership in programs that support female and minority attorneys and diversify recruiting. He's the youngest member to be elected to that committee. He also is on the partner compensation committee and the associate evaluation committee, and is chair of the foundation committee.
