

Featured in Bloomberg Law: Winston & Strawn Adds Two Tax Partners to Washington Office

JANUARY 25, 2021

Winston & Strawn is expanding its Washington, D.C. office with the addition of James Mastracchio and Susan Seabrook as partners and co-leads of our global tax controversy practice.

“Jim and Susan bring exceptional value to our D.C. litigation team,” said David Rogers, managing partner of Winston & Strawn’s Washington, D.C. office. “They are recognized for their unique experience managing cross-border and multi-jurisdictional tax issues.”

Read their feature in Bloomberg Law to learn more about the value that they bring to clients.

Less Than 1 Min Read

Related Locations

Washington, DC

Related Topics

Litigation

Tax

White Collar

Related Capabilities

Litigation/Trials

White Collar & Government Investigations

Tax

Related Professionals

James N. Mastracchio

Susan Elizabeth Seabrook

David Rogers