

Winston & Strawn's West Coast Expansion Featured in The American Lawyer

FEBRUARY 16, 2021

Winston & Strawn's significant expansion of the firm's West Coast presence and capabilities was recently featured in The American Lawyer. Included in this expansion are 14 attorneys focused on white collar and complex commercial litigation from the law office of Scheper Kim & Harris LLP and three former partners at Sidley Austin, LLP, with wide-ranging expertise in real estate finance, restructurings and workouts, and related litigation.

"These additions represent a significant increase in Winston's ability to serve the unique and growing needs of the West Coast market, and we look forward to their valued contributions," said Eva Davis, Los Angeles Office Managing Partner.
