

Winston & Strawn Attorneys Appointed to Structured Finance Association Committees

FEBRUARY 23, 2021

Two Winston & Strawn Attorneys were recently appointed to serve on Structured Finance Association (SFA) committees.

Structured Finance Practice Co-Chair Jeffrey Stern was elected as co-chair to the SFA's Alternative and Emerging Markets Committee. In this role, he will help SFA members and the structured finance industry at large further their 2021-2022 policy, advocacy, and research initiatives.

Corporate Associate Eunice Chay was selected to serve as a member of the Community Outreach Committee for the SFA's Women in Securitization, an initiative that focuses on the development, advancement, and retention of women in the legal industry by providing educational content, professional resources, and an expansive platform to connect with advocates, both male and female.
