

Imad Khan Speaks On the Future of Investment Arbitration at the American University Washington College of Law's 14th Annual International Trade & Investment Law Society Program

APRIL 14, 2021

On April 14, Winston & Strawn Associate Imad Khan will join the American University Washington College of Law's International Trade and Investment Law Society Distinguished Alumni Honoree Event. He will be speaking as a panelist on the session titled "Investor-State Arbitration: Here Today, Gone Tomorrow?"

Register for the event here.

Imad is an international disputes lawyer with particular experience in investment treaty arbitration, having represented foreign investors and host states in over a dozen ICSID/UNCITRAL arbitrations and commercial arbitration under rules of the ICC, ICDR, HKIAC, and LCIA. He is also experienced in cross-border white collar/investigation and litigation matters. Imad advises companies across diverse economic sectors, including energy, oil and gas, electricity, renewables, waste management, mining, and pharmaceuticals. His international dispute resolution practice focuses on international arbitration, complex commercial litigation, and white collar, regulatory defense and investigations.

1 Min Read

Related Locations

Houston

Related Capabilities

International Arbitration

Related Regions

Related Professionals

M. Imad Khan