Winston & Strawn's São Paulo office reflects the firm's long-term investment in Brazil and the significant commitment of Winston's Latin America practice group members to the country over many decades. Our fully bilingual São Paulo-based attorneys represent clients on international financing, cross-border mergers and acquisitions, corporate governance, and disputes. They also act as a relationship touch point for global clients looking to expand into Brazil, ensuring an integrated and seamless service. Our São Paulo attorneys have in-depth knowledge of the region's legal, cultural, political, regulatory, and commercial frameworks, which have earned them recognition from Chambers Global, Chambers Brazil, Chambers Latin America, Leaders League, The Legal 500, Latinvex, IFLR 1000, and LatinFinance, among many others.

Our São Paulo-based lawyers also work with the Latin America team and others throughout the firm to represent Brazilian and international clients in other transactional and dispute matters such as fund formation, private equity, venture capital, project finance, real estate, restructurings, tax, antitrust, compliance, environmental, FCPA, international trade, labor, maritime, sanctions, and data privacy.
