

New York Women in Antitrust Group Spotlight Series: Lessons in Life and Law

JUNE 10, 2021

On June 10, Winston & Strawn Associate Lauren Duxstad will participate in The New York Women in Antitrust Group's "Spotlight Series: Lessons Learned in Life and Law." During these virtual gatherings, a member in her first decade of practice will interview a seasoned practitioner about her personal and professional growth in the profession, as well as her perspective on the future of antitrust law. Each session will include a 45-minute interview followed by a 15-minute networking opportunity via Zoom breakout rooms.
