

Winston Associates Appointed Young Lawyer Representatives for ABA Antitrust Section

JUNE 29, 2021

Winston & Strawn New York Associates Lauren Duxstad and Adam Dale were recently named ABA Young Lawyer Representatives for the 2021-2022 ABA year.

Lauren focuses her practice on antitrust litigation, complex commercial litigation and international corporate and governmental investigations. She was selected as a Young Lawyer Representative to the Antitrust Law Section's Long Range & Strategic Planning Committee.

Adam focuses his practice on antitrust, sports, and labor law. He regularly represents athletes and other high-profile sports industry clients in arbitration and litigation. He was selected as a Young Lawyer Representative to the Antitrust Law Section's Trade, Sports & Professional Associations Committee.

The ABA's Antitrust Law Section is the nation's premier bar organization for antitrust attorneys, offering exceptional educational programming, professional resources, and networking opportunities for lawyers and economists focused on competition, trade regulation, and consumer protection around the globe.

1 Min Read

Related Locations

New York

Related Topics

ABA Antitrust

Related Capabilities

Antitrust/Competition

Litigation/Trials

Sports

Related Regions

North America

Related Professionals

Lauren Duxstad

Adam I. Dale