

Small Refineries Win What May Be A Short-Lived Victory

JUNE 25, 2021

Winston & Strawn Partner Jonathan Brightbill recently connected with Texas Lawbook to discuss the Supreme Court decision on HollyFrontier Cheyenne Refining, LLC v. Renewable Fuels Association and how that will affect small oil refineries, particularly those seeking “hardship exemptions” from requirements of the Renewable Fuel Standards (RFS) under the Clean Air Act.

“While this HollyFrontier decision means that EPA still has discretion to grant these exemptions, EPA may be less willing to do so,” Jonathan said.
