

Incoming Associates Serve the Public Interest This Summer Through Winston's Pro Bono Fellowship Program

AUGUST 23, 2021

Ten recent law school graduates, and soon-to-be Winston associates, spent their summer gaining hands-on experience and providing much-needed assistance to public interest law organizations serving as Winston pro bono fellows.

These incoming Winston associates contributed more than 3,000 hours of pro bono service to the following organizations:

- Charles Acker Klingenberg – Loyola University Business Law Clinic, Chicago
- Chennell Coleman – Charlotte Center for Legal Advocacy, Charlotte
- Chang Hahn – The Bronx Defenders, New York
- Dhruva Krishna – California Lawyers for the Arts, Los Angeles
- Sydney Latimore – Legal Aid Chicago, Chicago
- Savannah Murin – Legal Aid Society of Metropolitan Family Services, Chicago
- Tyree Petty-Williams – Chicago Coalition for the Homeless, Chicago
- Amanda Stephens – Illinois Federal Defender Program, Chicago
- Alyssa Tyler – Houston Volunteer Lawyers, Houston
- Franklin Yanyang Shen – Texas Community Building with Attorney Resources, Houston

Winston & Strawn's Public Interest Law Fellowship Program places incoming associates in positions at local public interest law organizations of their choice during the period following graduation and prior to their official start date with the firm.

Since 2011, when the firm established the Pro Bono Fellowship Program, 155 Winston fellows have contributed more than 40,000 hours to public interest law organizations.

To learn more about Winston's pro bono practice click here.

1 Min Read

Related Locations

Charlotte

Chicago

Houston

Los Angeles

Related Topics

Pro Bono

Public Interest Law Fellowship Program

Related Regions

North America

This entry has been created for information and planning purposes. It is not intended to be, nor should it be substituted for, legal advice, which turns on specific facts.