+33 1 53 64 81 35

Camille advises international and domestic companies on corporate law transactions, particularly restructurings, mergers and acquisitions, and private equity and asset and share transactions.

Camille also has extensive experience in civil, commercial and criminal litigation in both French and Belgian law. She assists her clients at all stages of the proceedings: pre-litigation, settlement, pleadings and enforcement. She works with clients in various industries, including health care where she is experienced in regulatory and compliance matters.

Prior to joining Winston & Strawn, Camille practiced in the litigation department of a Belgian law firm for two years.

She is fluent in English and French and has some knowledge of Dutch.
