

ESG Criteria and Risks to Corporations and Boards: Establishing Measurements, Oversight, and Assessment

SEPTEMBER 23, 2021

On September 23, join Jonathan Brightbill—Winston & Strawn partner and Environmental Litigation & Enforcement Practice chair—for a webinar titled “ESG Criteria and Risks to Corporation and Boards: Establishing Measurements, Oversight, and Assessment.”

The event, hosted by Strafford, will provide corporate and in-house counsel with an overview of environmental, social, and governance (ESG) criteria as well as the framework and legal requirements for ESG reporting and disclosure. The panel will also examine directors’ fiduciary duties related to ESG measures and decision-making, finding the balance between company priorities and stakeholder demands, and developing legal and business requirements.
