

Leading Through Change: Association of Corporate Counsel Webinar

OCTOBER 5, 2021

On October 5, Los Angeles Managing Partner Eva Davis will speak on an Association of Corporate Counsel webinar titled “Leading Through Change.” Eva will lead a conversation with two seasoned women business leaders, Michelle Ross, Chief Executive Officer of Vision Media, providing engagement solutions to the world’s largest entertainment companies, and Alyson Barker, President of DB Holdings Shops, LLC, the largest operator of Drybar-branded shops in the United States. Both Michelle and Alyson have transitioned from trusted legal advisors to operational leaders in the C-suite. The discussion will cover:

- Leading companies through growth, change, and transformation
- How to best position the legal department to add value to the company and its board of directors and stakeholders
- How to combine business acumen, compassion, and empathy to grow high performing teams
- Leveraging relationships and connections to drive business growth and innovation
- Developing an authentic, impactful, and effective leadership style
- Addressing topics ranging from strategic initiatives, brand protection, risk mitigation, corporate governance, financings, equity management and human capital

This program is approved for 1 hour of CLE credit in CA, IL, NJ, NY, and TX.

Members of the Association of Corporate Counsel can register to attend this free webinar here.

Read more about this event here.

1 Min Read

Related Locations

Los Angeles

Related Capabilities

Corporate Governance

Finance

Labor & Employment

Advertising Litigation

Technology, Media & Telecommunications

Retail & Luxury

Related Regions

North America

Related Professionals

Eva Davis