Sarah focuses her practice on labor and employment and complex commercial litigation matters.

Sarah counsels clients on a wide variety of labor and employment matters, including wage and hour disputes, internal investigations, employee misclassification, as well as discrimination, harassment, retaliation, and ERISA benefit claims. During her time at Winston, Sarah has gained significant litigation experience as a member of trial teams in both state and federal court. She has worked closely with lay and expert witnesses, led discovery efforts, and researched and drafted memoranda, motions, and briefs. In early 2023, she was part of the team that achieved a full defense verdict in a whistleblower jury trial in Illinois state court.
