

Winston & Strawn Partners Instruct at ABA Litigation Section's First Diverse Lawyers Trial Academy

NOVEMBER 19, 2021 - NOVEMBER 20, 2021

The ABA Litigation Section held its first Diverse Lawyers Trial Academy in Boston on November 19-20. Houston partner, Paula W. Hinton, one of the founding co-chairs, served as an instructor at the Academy and Charlotte partner, Kobi Kennedy Brinson, also served as instructor for the inaugural trial academy. This new program, modeled after practice trial exercises, utilizes extensive preparation materials and drills which give young attorneys the stand-up experience they need to become first-chair trial lawyers while utilizing experienced faculty and federal judges as instructors in this simulated trial setting.

The Litigation Section will conduct regional programs that provide training opportunities to diverse lawyers and women attorneys. Winston & Strawn's counsel will be called upon to attend and participate as faculty as this event tours the country.

1 Min Read

Related Locations

Charlotte

Houston

Related Capabilities

Litigation/Trials

Related Regions

North America

Related Professionals

Kobi Brinson

Paula Hinton