

Winston & Strawn Adds Partner to IP Practice in Dallas, D.C.

JANUARY 5, 2022

In light of his arrival at Winston & Strawn, Partner Brian Ferguson has been featured in various legal publications.

His respective specialties exemplify Winston's continued investment in building the firm's patent litigation and intellectual property litigation capabilities to address the growing demand in those areas of the law.

Brian is recognized among the leading patent lawyers in the United States. He has more than 30 years of experience representing Fortune 100 innovator companies before all of the major patent law venues—the International Trade Commission, district courts, the Federal Circuit, and the Patent Trial and Appeal Board—in high-stakes IP disputes involving an array of technologies. In addition to his patent work, Brian has experience handling other intellectual property disputes, including trade secret, trademark, and copyright litigations.

Read the full stories on his arrival in Reuters, Law360, and Texas Lawyer.

1 Min Read

Related Locations

Dallas

Washington, DC

Related Capabilities

Intellectual Property

Related Regions

North America

Related Professionals

Brian E. Ferguson