

Sanaya M. Tamboli

Associate

Washington, DC
+1 202-282-5724

Sanaya focuses her practice on effectively assisting clients in complex commercial litigation, antitrust, and white collar investigation matters. She is representing numerous companies in federal government investigations in the real estate, interactive entertainment, gaming and esports industries.

Prior to joining the firm, Sanaya was a judicial intern for the Honorable Joel M. Cohen on the New York Supreme Court and an intern at the U.S. Securities & Exchange Commission.

Activities

Sanaya is a member of the firm's Women in Leadership Initiative and the Winston Asia Leadership Initiative.

Sanaya is also actively involved in pro bono work. She is currently working on a wrongful eviction case for an elderly client who was evicted from her senior housing, an asylum case for a gay man who was persecuted because of his sexuality, and a large-scale internal investigation for a charitable organization.

Credentials

EDUCATION

Sanaya received her J.D. in 2021 from Georgetown University Law Center, where she was the managing editor of the Journal of National Security Law and Policy as well as a peer advisor with the Dean of Students office. She received her B.A., cum laude, in political science and international studies from the University of Florida in 2018.

ADMISSIONS

- Florida
- District of Columbia

Related Insights & News

---

RECOGNITIONS

Winston Attorneys Named to 2022 Capital Pro Bono Honor Roll

SEPTEMBER 6, 2023

---

RECOGNITIONS

Winston & Strawn Antitrust/Competition Practice Recognized in 2023 GCR 100

DECEMBER 19, 2022

---

RECOGNITIONS

Winston Attorneys Named to 2021 Capital Pro Bono Honor Roll

JUNE 9, 2022

Capabilities

---

Litigation/Trials

Commercial Litigation & Disputes

Antitrust/Competition

Government Investigations, Enforcement & Compliance

Financial Services

Media & Entertainment

Technology, Media & Telecommunications