

Winston's Trademark Practice Recognized in 2022 WTR 1000 Rankings

FEBRUARY 28, 2022

Winston & Strawn is recognized by the World Trademark Review's (WTR) WTR 1000—The World's Leading Trademark Professionals. WTR is an independent publication that lists the world's leading trademark practices and practitioners. Winston was ranked at the bronze level in Illinois, New York, and California.

WTR calls Winston an "elite litigation firm [that] can tackle any trademark dispute and emerge victorious." Vice Chairman Michael Elkin is recognized in New York as "a leading light in the digital media and entertainment space and an adroit handler of mixed IP cases involving trademark, copyright, and other claims."

In California, Partner Jennifer Golinveaux is recommended. WTR highlights Jennifer for her "superb knowledge and tactical acumen," noting that she "can be relied on for vigorous support in the toughest cases."

Chicago Partner Ron Rothstein is recommended as "a smart choice of advocate" for high-profile disputes, pointing to client feedback saying he "champions creative strategies that other lawyers do not have the experience or confidence to try – and he achieves superior results."
