

Tom Melsheimer Featured as Litigator of the Week

APRIL 22, 2022

Winston & Strawn Dallas Managing Partner Tom Melsheimer was featured as Litigator of the Week by The Am Law Litigation Daily in the April 22, 2022 column.

This recognition stems from his win representing the former CEO of DaVita Inc., Kent Thiry, in the nation's first criminal prosecution alleging an illegal conspiracy involving a "non-solicitation" or "no-poach" agreement. In United States v. DaVita, Inc., a Colorado federal jury acquitted Mr. Thiry (and co-defendant DaVita Inc., which was represented by other counsel) on all counts of allegedly conspiring with three other companies to suppress competition in the market for employees.

The Winston & Strawn team was led by Tom Melsheimer and included Scott Thomas.
