

Lauren M. Rennecker

Associate

Washington, DC
+1 202-282-5268

Lauren is a litigation associate in the firm's Washington, DC office who focuses her practice on intellectual property. She utilizes her technical background in biochemistry and molecular biology to help navigate patent litigation disputes brought under the Hatch-Waxman Act in federal district courts, as well as Section 337 proceedings before the U.S. International Trade Commission.

Lauren has experience in various aspects of litigation, including legal research; drafting pleadings and motions; analyzing invalidity and non-infringement defenses; taking fact depositions; and preparing witness for direct and cross-examination. While in law school, Lauren served as an executive managing editor on the Emory International Law Review.

Credentials

EDUCATION

Lauren received her J.D. with honors from Emory University School of Law in 2023, where she completed the Certificate in Transactional Law and Skills, was an executive managing editor on the Emory International Law Review and a member of the Intellectual Property Law Society. In 2019, Lauren received her B.S. in biochemistry and molecular biology from the University of California, Santa Barbara.

ADMISSIONS

- District of Columbia

Related Insights & News

RECOGNITIONS

Winston Attorneys Named to 2023 Capital Pro Bono Honor Roll

MAY 29, 2024

Capabilities

Intellectual Property

Patent Litigation

Litigation/Trials

ITC – Section 337