

Amy Kearbey Joins Winston & Strawn in Washington, D.C.

JULY 18, 2022

Winston & Strawn recently announced the addition of Amy H. Kearbey as a partner in the Washington, D.C., office, where she joined the firm as a member of the Litigation Department with a focus on health care and life sciences.

Amy previously served as senior counsel for the Industry Guidance Branch of the Office of Counsel to the Inspector General at the United States Department of Health & Human Services (HHS). “Her experience at HHS and her leadership at the highest levels of this sector will greatly expand Winston’s current knowledge of the administration’s interpretation of regulations and compliance,” said Washington, D.C. Office Managing Partner David Rogers in the press release announcing her arrival.

Amy’s move to Winston has been covered by the following news outlets:
