

Winston Attorneys Speak at TexasBarCLE's 21st Annual Course - Advanced In-house Counsel

AUGUST 4-5, 2022

Winston & Strawn Partners Susannah Torpey and Natalie Arbaugh spoke at the 21st Annual Course - Advanced In-House Counsel presented by TexasBarCLE. This CLE program covered topics such as antitrust enforcement, labor and employment, trade secrets, data privacy, cyber risks, insurance, contracts, M&A, and Russian sanctions. Winston panelists included:

- The New Era of Antitrust Enforcement – Susannah Torpey (August 4)
- Understanding the Scope of Non-Compete and Non-Solicit in Employment Contracts – Natalie Arbaugh (August 4)

TAKEAWAYS

- Companies that don't use reasonable measures to protect trade secrets risk losing trade secret protection.
- It is important to update your trade secret program to account for risks presented by remote work.
- When investigating suspected trade secret misappropriation, it's critical to identify all the potential data sources, including access logs.
