

Edward A. Day

Associate

Chicago
+1 312-558-8106

Ted relies on his prior experience clerking at the federal district and appellate levels to serve clients facing challenging issues at any stage of the litigation process.

Before joining Winston, Ted worked as an associate in the Chicago office of a multinational law firm. While a law student, Ted interned with the Cook County State's Attorney's Office, Criminal Appeals Division.

Ted is passionate about expanding access to free and low-cost legal assistance in Chicago. Before entering private practice, Ted was a law fellow for the Legal Aid Society of Metropolitan Family Services. He represented low-income tenants in disputes before the Circuit Court of Cook County, and successfully negotiated with property management companies to find suitable resolutions for his clients and avoid litigation. Ted continues to support the Legal Aid Society as a member of the Metropolitan & Legal Aid Associate Board.
