

Bobby Malhotra Joins Winston & Strawn in Los Angeles

NOVEMBER 14, 2022

Winston & Strawn recently announced the addition of Bobby Malhotra to the firm's Los Angeles office, where he joined as a partner in the Litigation Department.

Bobby focuses his practice on navigating complex eDiscovery issues in large, high-stakes litigation and regulatory matters, including eDiscovery preparedness, planning, and execution, as well as information privacy and data security. He has served as a trusted eDiscovery advisor and outside discovery counsel to multiple Fortune 50 technology and financial services clients and provided guidance in connection with legally defensible and standardized companywide discovery practices.

"Bobby's highly specialized skills will be invaluable to our large institutional and multinational clients," said Los Angeles Office Managing Partner Angela Machala in the press release announcing his arrival. "With his IT background and deep, extensive knowledge of eDiscovery, we are in an ideal position to advise clients on a wide range of evolving legal, data management, and compliance issues."

Bobby's move to Winston has been covered by the following news outlets:
