

Jake A. Ferzacca

Associate

Chicago
+1 312-558-7935

Jake assists clients with commercial disputes and products liability claims in state and federal courts throughout the country. He has extensive experience in discovery management, witness preparation, and fact investigation in complex cases. He also advises companies on best practices to minimize legal risk with a particular focus on real-estate disputes.

Jake also maintains an active pro bono practice. He obtained a favorable resolution for a client facing federal criminal fraud charges and resolved a contract dispute for a Chicago-based nonprofit. During law school, Jake assisted in securing a multi-million-dollar settlement for two wrongfully convicted teenagers and received distinction for providing over 250 hours of pro-bono services.

Credentials

EDUCATION

Jake received his J.D. from The University of Chicago Law School in 2022. He received his B.S. in business administration with a Minor in Legal Foundations of Society from The Ohio State University in 2017.

ADMISSIONS

- Illinois

Related Insights & News

PRO BONO IN ACTION

Winston Helps Secure Dismissal of Felony Charges for Asylum Seeker Swept Up in Fraud Scheme

JUNE 9, 2023

Capabilities

Commercial Litigation & Disputes