

Paul Fleming Joins Winston & Strawn in London

JANUARY 4, 2023

Winston & Strawn recently announced the addition of Partner Paul Fleming to the firm's London office, where he joined to lead the office's Restructuring & Insolvency Practice.

Paul has more than 25 years' experience in advising creditors (including institutional lenders and bondholders), stakeholders, insolvency practitioners, and directors on complex domestic and cross-border restructurings and insolvencies. A licensed insolvency practitioner and a member of both R3 and INSOL, he focuses his practice on representing leading accountancy firms and multinational financial services companies.

Recognised for his practical approach, deft client handling, and strategic skills, Paul has represented clients across a broad range of industries, including financial services, private equity and funds, mining, hospitality, and real estate.

"Paul's contacts, knowledge, and experience will equip our office with the critical corporate restructuring capabilities our clients require," said London Office Managing Partner Nicholas Usher in the press release announcing his arrival. The depth and breadth he adds to our team's expanding service offering is most welcome."
