

Financial Services Regulatory and Enforcement Outlook for 2023 and Beyond

JANUARY 26, 2023

On January 26, members of Winston & Strawn's Financial Services Regulatory and Enforcement team presented a CLE program discussing the government's aggressive regulatory and enforcement agenda and how it will impact global financial services institutions and their corporate employees in 2023 and beyond.

Topics included:

- DOJ initiatives
- CFPB priorities and challenges
- OCC and the revised civil money penalty (CMP) manual
- FinTech, fair lending, and UDAAP
- Intellectual property

This hybrid event was hosted in the firm's Charlotte office and via Zoom.

Watch the recording here.

Winston & Strawn LLP is an accredited CLE provider in California, Florida, Illinois, New York, Pennsylvania, and Texas. North Carolina CLE is pending. Other states available upon request.

Less Than 1 Min Read

Related Locations

Charlotte

Related Capabilities

Financial Services Transactions & Regulatory

Transactions

Intellectual Property

Commercial Litigation & Disputes

Government Investigations, Enforcement & Compliance

Financial Services

Related Regions

North America

Related Professionals

Juan Azei

Kobi Kennedy Brinson

Carl Fornaris

Elizabeth Ireland

Jack Knight

Danielle Williams