

Winston Sponsors Judges' Panel Discussion on Litigation and Presentation to the Court

MARCH 1, 2023

On March 1, 2023, Partner Jervonne Newsome moderated a panel discussion regarding practical tips on presentation and delivery for aspiring litigators in the Dallas region. The panel consisted of Judge Tonya Parker of the 116th Civil District Court, Judge Andrea Plumlee of the 330th Family District Court, Judge Ingrid Warren of Probate Court No. 2, and Judge Carmen White of County Criminal Court 8.

Participants of the event ranged from solo practitioners, managing partners, prosecutors, associates, and junior partners. The discussion touched on drafting good briefs, dealing with problematic facts, how to address the Court when you receive an adverse ruling, and more. After the discussion, participants were invited to visit with the judges at a networking reception co-sponsored by Winston & Strawn.

Less Than 1 Min Read

Related Locations

Dallas

Related Capabilities

Litigation/Trials

Related Regions

North America

Related Professionals

Jervonne D. Newsome