APRIL 14, 2023

Winston & Strawn Partner LeElle Slifer was quoted in a Billboard article addressing new claims by Megan Pete, professionally known as Megan Thee Stallion, alleging that her record label 1501 Certified Entertainment has been dissipating bank accounts to make itself “judgement proof.” This comes as the most recent update in the lawsuit originally filed against the record label in February 2022. Freundlich of Freundlich Law. “The allegations are without merit and we are confident that 1501 will prevail on these motions and ultimately recover the substantial money that Ms. Pete owes 1501.”
