

Erin Weber Returns to Winston & Strawn in Chicago

MAY 22, 2023

Winston & Strawn recently announced the return of Partner Erin Weber to the firm's Chicago office, where she returned as a member of the firm's Transactions Department and the Employee Benefits & Executive Compensation (EBEC) Practice.

Erin was a partner at Winston and worked at the firm for nearly 19 years. She represents large corporations, both public and private, in connection with their full range of employee benefits matters, including retirement plans, health and welfare benefits, fiduciary guidance, employee benefit-related tax and securities issues, executive compensation and ERISA litigation. She has extensive experience representing employers in the negotiation of trustee, third-party administrator, recordkeeper, and other outside vendor agreements.

"The demand for sophisticated benefits and ERISA counsel continues to be a top concern across our key practices," said Chicago Office Managing Partner Cardelle Spangler in the press release announcing her arrival. "We are excited to welcome Erin back, as her in-depth knowledge and experience will be invaluable to our clients here in Chicago and around the country."
