

Litigation Training Yields Tech-savvy Associates

DECEMBER 16, 2013

It's full steam ahead for Winston's Junior Level Litigation Training. Already in its fourth week, the 10-part series supplies new associates with skills and knowledge essential to the practice of law. Last Wednesday, first-year litigation and labor & employment associates had the opportunity to hone their technological abilities on key legal applications. Developed and taught by senior technical trainer, Matt Steiner, Wednesday's program was introduced in 2012 to increase task efficiency by offering tips and best practices for successfully navigating industry software like Relativity and CaseMap.
