

Scott Delaney Joins Winston & Strawn in Dallas Office

JULY 27, 2023

Winston & Strawn recently announced the addition of Scott Delaney to the firm's Dallas office, where he joined as a member of the Transactions Department's Private Equity Transactions Practice.

Scott focuses his practice on corporate transactions for public and private companies, as well as private equity sponsors and their portfolio companies, with a particular emphasis on the energy sector. His transactional experience includes acquisitions, divestitures, joint ventures, securitizations, and other investments and transactions across the energy spectrum, including in the traditional upstream and midstream oil and gas sectors and in the transitional energy sectors. Scott also assists in advising clients on general corporate matters, including operating and commercial contract matters.

"Adding Scott further strengthens Winston's place as one of the go-to firms for adeptly managing complex energy transactions," said Dallas Office Managing Partner Bryan Goolsby said in the press release announcing his arrival. "His proven experience will only help us to expand our client base and the portfolio of services we provide to the energy industry."
