

Randa Jaafar

Counsel

New York
+1 212-294-3542

Randa structures and executes complex financing transactions for financial institutions on various projects across sectors.

She has extensive experience in financing transactions (both domestic and cross-border) focused on secured lending, private placements, and project finance. She has represented institutional investors, insurance companies, commercial banks, and investment banks in the financings of a variety of projects involving sports stadiums, wind and solar power projects, real estate, vessels, and various other tangible assets

Credentials

ADMISSIONS

- New York