

Bryan Ikegami Joins Winston & Strawn in Los Angeles

JULY 20, 2023

Winston & Strawn recently announced the addition of Bryan Ikegami to the firm's Los Angeles office, where he joined as a partner in the Transactions Department and Private Equity Practice.

Bryan has significant experience representing private equity funds and their broad range of portfolio companies in complex domestic and cross-border transactions, including mergers and acquisitions, divestitures, financing transactions, restructurings, and recapitalizations. He has also represented a diverse array of other public and private companies in varying stages of their lifecycle, including growth equity investments and sale transactions for founder-owned businesses.

"Bryan's proven private equity and M&A experience will directly contribute to the Los Angeles office's ability to serve the city and region's dynamic business community," said Los Angeles Office Managing Partner Angela Machala in the press release announcing his arrival. "His background is an ideal fit for this market, and we look forward to bringing his services to bear on behalf of clients operating in some of California's key growth sectors."

Bryan's move to Winston has been covered by the following news outlets:

- "Winston & Strawn Drafts Partner Ikegami to Los Angeles Office," Bloomberg Law
- "Winston & Strawn Adds PE Pro From California Boutique," Law360

1 Min Read

Related Locations

Los Angeles

Related Capabilities

Private Equity

Related Regions

North America

Related Professionals

Bryan Ikegami

Angela M. Machala