

American Multinational Hedge Fund and Financial Services Company Trademark Counseling

AUGUST 1, 2023

Winston does significant brand enforcement work for an American multinational hedge fund and financial services company, including trademark opposition and cancellation proceedings, UDRP and related domain name proceedings as well as other enforcement work on a global basis. We represent the company in its global trademark portfolio management and in domain registry matters and in connection with IP licensing. We also advise on other IP-related matters, including open-source counseling.
