

Nathan C. Greess

Associate

New York

Nathan is a litigation associate whose practice includes antitrust, bankruptcy litigation, and complex commercial matters, while also assisting on other general litigation matters. He maintains an active pro bono practice focused on Section 1983 civil rights litigation and housing rights matters.

Nathan is experienced in researching and writing memorandums for a variety of legal matters, writing motions, and supporting litigation through trial.

Prior to joining the firm, Nathan was a judicial intern for the Honorable Edgardo Ramos of the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York and a Winston summer associate. While in law school, Nathan was a Notes Editor for the New York University Law Review.

Key Matters

- Adams v. Quigley – Represented Plaintiff in a Section 1983 trial against three New York Police Department officers for false arrest and denial of a fair trial based on fabrication of evidence resulting in a $1.125 million jury award, the largest jury verdict in the Firm’s pro bono history.

- Served on the Winston team that secured a significant trial victory on behalf of pro bono client Andre Adams, Black Staten Island resident, with the jury finding that the NYPD officers falsely arrested him for possession of marijuana and fabricated evidence to support both the marijuana and felony assault charges.

Credentials

EDUCATION

Nathan earned his J.D. from the New York University School of Law in 2022, where he was a Notes Editor for the New York University Law Review. He received his B.A. in Politics and Economics, summa cum laude, with Honors, from Brandeis University in 2019.
