

Sean Beecroft

Associate

Houston
+1 713-651-2604

Sean is a litigator with a background in computer science, genetics, and chemistry. He represents both plaintiffs and defendants in patent disputes and in complex commercial litigation. Before law school, Sean worked in software programming, data analysis, and web development, and received a B.S. in bioinformatics. Following law school, Sean clerked for the Honorable Toby Crouse for the United States District Court for the District of Kansas.

While he attended the University of Chicago Law School, Sean was an editor of the University of Chicago Business Law Review. He participated in the Hinton Moot Court and was Vice President of the Intellectual property Law Society. Sean was both a student director and a team leader of the Kirkland & Ellis Corporate Lab Clinic. During his undergraduate education, Sean participated in undergraduate research in bioinformatics, some of which was included in the article Proteogenomic Characterization of Endometrial Carcinoma in the scientific journal Cell. He also worked as a web developer for various organizations.

Credentials

EDUCATION

Sean earned his J.D. in 2022 from the University of Chicago Law School, where he was an editor of the University of Chicago Business Law Review and a Student Director of the Kirkland & Ellis Corporate Lab Clinic. He was also the Vice President of the Intellectual Property Law Society. Sean received his B.S. from Brigham Young University in 2019.

ADMISSIONS

- Kansas
- Texas

CLERKSHIPS

- USDC - District of KS for the Honorable Toby Crouse

Related Insights & News

BLOG

Judge Albright Denies Plaintiff VLSI Technology's Motion for Entry of Scheduling Order on Defendant Intel's License Defense

FEBRUARY 21, 2024

Capabilities

Patent Litigation

Intellectual Property

Litigation/Trials

Commercial Litigation & Disputes

Copyright-Infringement Litigation

IP Licensing & Due Diligence