On October 27, Winston partner Kevin Goldstein will join The Knowledge Group's CLE webcast titled "Unpacking Antitrust No-Poach Agreements: Navigating Legal and Economic Dimensions in Depth."

This comprehensive discussion will address the intricacies surrounding no-poach agreements, their legal implications and economic ramifications. It will cover the perspective of U.S. antitrust enforcers on no-poach agreements and recent criminal developments as well as the global trend toward heightened antitrust scrutiny of labor markets. Panelists will also offer practical tips and strategies for understanding when labor restrictions are permissible and how to draft agreements and manage teams to minimize antitrust risk.
