

Evan S. Gilbert

Associate

Miami

+1 305-910-0546

Evan focuses his practice on a broad range of litigation matters.

Prior to joining Winston, Evan gained valuable communications experience as deputy press secretary for the House Energy and Commerce Committee, where he served as a spokesperson for the Committee and Chairman Frank Pallone, Jr. (D-NJ) and developed and led press strategy and messaging on telecommunications, data privacy and security, and other consumer protection legislation.

Recent Experience

Winston Wins Dismissal of False Advertising Claims Against Birdseed Manufacturer

Recognitions

- Miami Public Interest Scholar, University of Miami School of Law

Credentials

EDUCATION

Evan earned his J.D., magna cum laude, from the University of Miami School of Law, where he was a Miami Public Interest and Harvey T. Reid Scholar. While in law school, Evan was a staff editor of the University of Miami Law Review and member of the Charles C. Papy, Jr. Moot Court Board. Evan received his B.A. in history from Vanderbilt University in 2015.

ADMISSIONS

- Florida

Related Insights & News

ARTICLE

Global Competition Review's Americas Antitrust Review 2025
OCTOBER 30, 2024

PRO BONO IN ACTION

Winston Helps Political Prisoners Expelled from Nicaragua to File for Asylum
AUGUST 29, 2024

NEWS

2023 Pro Bono Impact Report
MAY 1, 2024

ARTICLE

Vacating or Modifying an Arbitration Award in Florida State Court
DECEMBER 13, 2023

Capabilities

Litigation/Trials