

Kobi Kennedy Brinson Helps Launch Inaugural African American Leadership Academy of Charlotte

SEPTEMBER 29, 2023

Winston & Strawn partner Kobi Kennedy Brinson serves as a member of the governing board of the African American Leadership Academy of Charlotte (the Academy), which welcomed its first class this month.

This new initiative produced by the Charlotte Regional Business Alliance is dedicated to expanding “the number and impact of African American leaders in [the Charlotte] community by creating a safe, supportive space that fosters acceleration and growth.”

The Academy offers fellows at the director, executive director, VP, or SVP levels with research-based efficacy curriculum, complimentary executive coaching, and networking opportunities with C-level leaders.
