

Jennifer Morgan Returns to Winston & Strawn in Los Angeles

DECEMBER 5, 2023

Winston & Strawn recently announced the return of partner Jennifer Morgan to the firm's Los Angeles office, where she returned to the firm's Transactions Department as a member of the Tax practice with a special focus in the Energy & Infrastructure industry group.

Jennifer has over 20 years of experience representing clients regarding U.S. federal income and international tax considerations in transaction planning, structuring, and execution, and on complex mergers and acquisitions. She has represented large infrastructure funds, foreign government pension plans, private equity, and multinational businesses in domestic and cross-border acquisitions, dispositions, financings, and restructurings.

"We're delighted to welcome Jennifer back to the Los Angeles team as we continue to address an increasingly challenging marketplace for transactions across the middle market," said Los Angeles Office Managing Partner Angela Machala in the press release announcing her arrival. "Given her extensive experience in energy tax credits, government incentive programs, project developments and financings, and mergers and acquisitions, Jennifer's contributions will be essential as we continue to address clients' rapidly evolving needs."
