

Priyanka Rajesh Parihar

Advisor

Dallas

+1 214-453-6572

Priyanka is a proficient technical advisor with experience in comprehending complex technical ideas, developing intricate patent strategies and providing expert insights onto patent litigation matters, driving value assessment across industrial domains majorly in life science, biomedical, biochemistry, material and physical sciences. Grounded in biotechnology through her industry tenure, backed up with bachelor's and master's degrees, Priyanka brings a distinctive strategic advantage to her role. She excels in bridging the gap between technical and legal departments, leveraging her solid & intrinsic grasp of patent laws and domain expertise.

Priyanka offers clients a distinctive fusion of technical proficiency and research insight, crafting effective intellectual property solutions to tackle business challenges.

In her role as a senior patent professional, Priyanka played a pivotal role by providing in-depth analysis and expertise in a broad spectrum of areas, including patent litigation, strategy development, patent validity assessments, freedom to operate searches, prior art exploration, claim interpretation, patentability evaluations, infringement analyses, technology landscaping, and competitive landscape assessments within the realm of intellectual property. Priyanka's professional background encompasses a diverse range of technical domains, spanning across life science, biomedical, biochemistry, food and nutraceuticals, nanotechnology, cosmetics, material science and engineering, chemical engineering, as well as physical sciences.

Priyanka is a seasoned professional with exceptional writing skills, exemplified by the publication of her research in a major scientific journal during her academic journey. Having obtained advanced specialization in IP laws from the University of California, Priyanka demonstrates a strong command of patent laws, showcasing a proven ability to navigate the complexities inherent in patent-related matters. Her specialization in Project Management, acquired from University of Arkansas, underscores her proficiency in coordinating tasks, successfully achieving strategic goals and exceeding client expectations.

Activities

Board member, Writers in the Schools, 2001–2003

Credentials

EDUCATION

Priyanka received her Bachelor of Technology in Biotechnology from Sir Padampat Singhanian University in 2011. She received her Master of Technology in Biotechnology from SRM University in 2013. She did her specialization in IP laws from University of California, San Diego in 2021.

LANGUAGES

- Hindi

Related Insights & News

- “SPACs and University Start-Ups: Understanding the Pros and Cons,” Tech Transfer Central Webinar, Nov. 2021

Capabilities

Intellectual Property	Patent Litigation	Food & Beverage	Life Sciences
Medical Devices	Health Care		