

Represented Suntory Global Spirits in its Sale of Courvoisier

APRIL 30, 2024

Winston & Strawn represented Suntory Global Spirits (f/k/a Beam Suntory), a world leader in premium spirits, in its US$1.2B sale of the Courvoisier cognac brand and related assets to Campari Group. Campari has assumed full ownership of Courvoisier, including properties and operations in Jarnac, France, intellectual property, maturing inventory, and case finished goods and will distill, age, and bottle Courvoisier.

The transaction will allow Suntory Global Spirits to focus its portfolio on core areas of strength as they accelerate their global growth ambitions.
