

Sabrina Junger Mikuta

She/Her/Hers
Director
Project Management Services

Chicago
+1 312-558-5875

As Director of Project Management Services, Sabrina leads the firm's project management and business analysis efforts. She plays a critical role in executing business and technology initiatives that align with the firm's strategic goals.

Sabrina established Winston's Project Management Office when she joined the firm in 2016. Under her leadership, the PMO has grown into a team of relationship managers and strategists, tackling complex projects to improve efficiencies and innovate processes. She collaborates with stakeholders and leads cross-departmental projects with an impact on the firm's competitiveness and the efficiency of business processes.

Activities

Sabrina serves as a firm Inclusion Ambassador and is a member of the Project Management Institute.

Credentials

EDUCATION

Sabrina received her B.A. in Sociology from Northwestern University in 2004.