

Linda Yun

Director
Executive Communications

Chicago
+1 312-558-3495

As Director of Executive Communications, Linda provides strategic guidance to firm leadership on internal communications strategies to cultivate collaboration and consensus building. She acts as a trusted advisor to the Office of the Chair and works closely with leaders across the firm to ensure all internal communications efforts are aligned with the firm's strategic goals.

Linda has more than 25 years of experience providing counsel to companies, government agencies, and nonprofit organizations. Prior to joining Winston, Linda led marketing communications and public relations for international law firms. She also served as a Washington correspondent for Japan's largest daily newspaper covering military and foreign affairs.

Credentials

EDUCATION

Linda received her B.J. in Broadcast Journalism from the University of Missouri-Columbia.