

Alan Roth and Kate Price Attend White House Convening on Small Business Investment Company Program

FEBRUARY 14, 2024

Winston partners Alan Roth and Kate Price attended an invitation-only event at the White House on February 14, 2024. The event was in recognition of industry contributors and the Biden-Harris Administration's important work to modernize, diversify, and expand America's $42 billion public-private investment partnership program, the SBIC program.

"Winston is proud to be part of the efforts undertaken by the White House, the SBA, and the National Economic Council supporting the growth of U.S. small businesses," Alan said.
