

Jeffrey Kessler Featured on an Episode of the “Now It’s Legal” Podcast

AUGUST 30, 2024

Winston & Strawn partner Jeffrey Kessler was featured on an episode of the “Now It’s Legal” podcast where he discussed his longstanding career in sports law, as well as his involvement in the transformative antitrust class action settlement that will change the economic model of college sports and provide billions of dollars in backpay damages and tens of billions of dollars in future revenue-sharing to college athletes.

In the episode, Jeffrey touched on topics including how he got involved in the House v. NCAA antitrust case, why the settlement is the best route for the parties involved, how schools may approach this new system, the effect of the settlement on future litigation, and more.
