

Jonathan Brightbill Moderates Federalist Society Panel on What To Expect in a Post-Chevron World

OCTOBER 29, 2024, 12:30PM-1:30PM ET

Winston & Strawn partner Jonathan Brightbill joined law professors from across the nation to moderate a discussion on the recent Supreme Court ruling in Loper Bright Enterprises v. Raimondo, a landmark decision that declared, “Chevron is overruled.” The ruling shifts the federal judiciary’s approach to reviewing agency interpretations of ambiguous statutes, eliminating the deference previously granted to agencies.

The panel, sponsored by the Federalist Society, explored how the Loper Bright ruling will reshape agency actions and what to expect in a post-Chevron world.
