

Grayson Carnahan

Associate

Houston

+1 713-651-2768

Grayson is a litigation associate who focuses his practice on complex commercial and intellectual property litigation.

Grayson is an associate in the firm's Houston office who uses his engineering degree and legal experience to advise clients on commercial disputes and intellectual property matters. Passionate about advocating for immigrants, Grayson served as a student attorney for the University of Houston Law Center Immigration Clinic as well as externing for a local immigration non-profit where he assisted clients in English and Spanish.

Key Matters

- Assisted in representing a citizen of England in Eastern District of Texas proceedings seeking the return of his sons to England pursuant to the 1980 Hauge Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction.

Credentials

EDUCATION

Grayson received his B.S. in industrial engineering from Texas A&M University in 2021. He earned his J.D. from the University of Houston Law Center in 2024, where he was a case note and comments editor for the Houston Journal of International Law.

ADMISSIONS

- Texas

LANGUAGES

- Spanish

Related Insights & News

- The Tempest Tossed-Aside: How Politicizing Immigration Policy has Stalled Reform and Dehumanized Immigrants, 46 J. Int’l L. 73 (2024)

Capabilities

Litigation/Trials

Commercial Litigation & Disputes

Intellectual Property

Patent Litigation

Product Liability & Mass Torts

Artificial Intelligence (AI)

Oil & Gas

Technology, Media & Telecommunications