THE CONSOLIDATED APPROPRIATIONS ACT (CAA) POST ELECTION

December 4, 2024, 1:00 PM-2:00 PM ET

In 2021, the Consolidated Appropriations Act (CAA) was signed into law, introducing significant regulatory changes and new legal challenges with substantial implications for employers managing health benefits. With the outcome of the upcoming November elections, employers could face further shifts in requirements and opportunities. Join our policy and legal experts as they unpack critical CAA provisions that present challenges for employers, discuss potential impacts of the 2024 elections, highlight current compliance issues, and share best practices to address these challenges. Additionally, they'll explore policy solutions that could be considered in the coming year.
